

In your efforts to control bird collisions please:

- *Begin a systemic review of communication tower and bird mortality issues;
- *Identify tower placement, design and lighting conditions that result in bird mortality;
- *Require that all proposed towers be subjected rigorous environmental reviews that protect birds;
- *and implement immediate protections based on existing knowledge, such as the voluntary tower siting and placement guides developed by the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service.